SINGAPORE: A book has been launched to showcase the thoughts and feelings of autistic children in Singapore.

"Beautiful Minds" is a compilation of journals, poems and drawings by more than 30 children from Pathlight School which caters to students with Autism Spectrum Disorders. (ASD)

The book was conceived by the school's acting principal and Member of Parliament, Ms Denise Phua.

All sale proceeds from the 15-dollar book will go to a new building fund for Pathlight school. - CNA /dt
