

TRAINER PROFILE

KAY HUANG

Ms Kay Huang is an Executive with Autism Association (Singapore).

She graduated from National University of Singapore with a degree – Bachelor of Arts (Honours).

Ms Kay has had experience working with people with autism of various age groups, from preschool children to young adults. She had been responsible for writing and implementing individual goals for the pre-school children when she was teaching in the early intervention centre and for school-age children when she was a teacher in Pathlight School. Currently, she is intimately involved in the development of the curriculum and autism programmes at the Eden Centre for Adults. She is also responsible for coaching new trainers at the Eden Centre to ensure autism best practices are followed in the centre.