

TAN PENG CHIAN
Principal Occupational Therapist, KKH

MS TAN PENG CHIAN is currently the Principal Occupational Therapist at the Department of Child Development, KK Women's and Children's Hospital (KKH). She is also the co-ordinator in charge of the Seng Kang Satellite Clinic of the KKH Department of Child Development.

Ms Tan has a Bachelor of Occupational Therapy (First Class Honours) from the University of Queensland, Australia and a Masters in Occupational Therapy and Occupational Science awarded by University of South California, Los Angeles, USA.

With 15 years of experience working with children with Autism and other development difficulties, Ms Tan has contributed significantly through research on pretend play, sensory profile, sensory processing and motor planning.

In the last 6 years, Ms Tan has given numerous public forums and conducts regular workshops on Handwriting and Sensory Processing difficulties as well as sensory integration and motor coordination difficulties of children with autism.